MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Having representation in the industry where strategic decisions are made that affect my family and our business.
- Having staff managing programs on my behalf as a cattlemaster
- Receive our quarterly newsletter Cow Talk
- Having dedicated women who volunteer to work on my behalf sacrificing their time, talent and financial resources to govern our grassroots organization.
- Having access to information from our industry partners involved in legislative and regulatory action in a timely manner
- Fellowship with other cattle women just like you!

MISSION:

- The Tennessee CattleWomen's Association is a voice for women who share a passion for the U.S. beef industry. Our mission is to promote and support the industry, and encourage women involved in beef and related agribusiness. We want to implement leadership development, education, volunteer opportunities, state programs, and participate in the strategic planning process of the cattle industry.

ACTIVITIES:

- Salvation Army— TCWA is collecting money for The Salvation Army. The money will be designated for beef product purchases in the soup kitchens. There is a Salvation Army located in the following cities: Memphis, Jackson, Clarksville, Nashville, Murfreesboro, Lebanon, Chattanooga, Knoxville, Johnson City, Kingsport, and Bristol, TN.
- The Tennessee Cattlemen's Association Annual Convention and Trade Show— January 21-23rd 2010, TCWA will have its annual meeting at the TCA Convention and Trade Show in Murfreesboro, TN.

Youth Scholarship— At the TCWA meeting at convention, it was approved to provide a $250 scholarship in 2010 for a college student from the TCWA account.

TCWA attended a beef butchering demonstration at the WSCC Sevier County Campus at Convention in 2009.
